

Our Feathered Friends by Elizabeth and Joseph Grinnell

Read by LibriVox volunteers Total running time: 03:18:58

This volume displays the romance of birds in beautiful prose and dialog in simple language for children and adults alike. Written by a mother and son team of naturalists, chapters describe various aspects of the life and habits of birds highlighting specific birds from owls to hummingbirds. From the introduction: "Seek the children, little book: Bid them love the bird's retreat . . . Bid them find their secrets out, How to understand their words."
